

Announcements and Church Information

Welcome to this gathering of believers. We pray that you may find renewed grace and peace through our time together. We are pleased that you are visiting us today. If there is anything we can do to enhance your time with us, we are here to help. Just ask one of our ushers or anyone in the congregation. We have coffee, tea, and snacks available after the service in Wilson Hall and invite you to join us there and visit with some of our members (except in the summer months). We do ask that you fill out a Visitor Card (yellow card in the pew racks) and put it on our collection plate. If you only fill out the name portion it would be helpful for us. If you give us your address, telephone number and/or your email address we can follow up with you if you so indicate. Go to our website, www.rumsonpresbyterian.org, to find out more about us. We are happy you joined us and look forward to seeing you again.

Blair Nelsen

Blair Nelsen is Executive Director of Waterspirit, a spiritual ecology nonprofit sponsored by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Peace. Through programs, education, and advocacy, Waterspirit inspires, informs and enables all people to deepen their consciousness of the sacredness of water and all Creation. Waterspirit is headquartered at the First Presbyterian Church of Rumson. Blair brings a multi-faith, international perspective to her work in the field of spiritual ecology after years of living in Brazil and Venezuela. She also represents the Sisters of St. Joseph of Peace at the United Nations, where she is actively engaged in faith-based environmental collaborations. Blair received her Master of Arts in Religion from Yale Divinity School and her BA with honors in Environmental Studies from Brown University. She is fluent in Portuguese and Spanish, and has experience with tropical agroecology and permaculture. She is an experienced meditation coach and retreat leader. Learn more about Waterspirit at <http://www.waterspirit.org>.

Meeting of the Congregation

There shall be a meeting of the congregation in the sanctuary immediately following the January 28th service, at which the 2023 Annual Report and 2024 Budget will be presented, and nominations for the Congregational Nominating Committee will be accepted and voted on.
