PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Lord, our lives are as open books before you. You judge the inner resources of our hearts. You tear aside our masks. You are not deceived by our excuses. You judge us by inward motives as well as outward deeds. Restore us by the cleansing power of your love and renew us in the most secret place of our souls, that we may go forth from this hour to be the people you made us to be, through Christ our Lord. (Silent Prayer)
