

Announcements and Church Information

Welcome to this gathering of believers. We are pleased that you are visiting us today and pray that you may find renewed grace and peace through our time together. If there is anything we can do to enhance your time with us, we are here to help. Just ask one of our ushers or anyone in the congregation. We do ask that you fill out a Visitor Card (yellow card in the pew racks) and put it in our collection plate, that we follow up with you if you so indicate. Go to our website, www.rumsonpresbyterian.org, to find out more about us. We are happy you joined us and look forward to seeing you again.

“The Stories of Jesus: Then and Now!”

“The Stories of Jesus: Then and Now” has been an overarching theme through this summer. As we reach the season’s end, we’ll reflect upon one of the best-known scenes from Jesus’ life with the disciples – a source of inspiration and humor through countless years. The story as told by Matthew in his chapter 14, recounts the time when his followers saw him coming to them on the surface of the sea. Or does it...? What are the possible meanings and messages from a compelling Gospel account? “Jesus Walked Where?” is the sermon title. And what difference does it make?

The sermon for today explores the question and implications for us of: “Jesus Walked Where?”
